Dear Kairan,

MSC, Master of Science Information Management (Full Time) IJCT002
Start date: 28 September 2026
Expected end date: 28 September 2027
School: School of Information, Journalism and Communication
CAH3 Code: CAH24-01-01

I am pleased to offer you a place to study the above course at the University of Sheffield. This offer is conditional on you meeting these requirements:

- Obtaining a final weighted average of 80% or above in your BSc from Nanfang College - Guangzhou. Please see our supporting documents pages to ensure your documentation meets our requirements: www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/supporting
- Achieving a minimum score of IELTS 6.5 with at least 6.0 in each component, or the equivalent in an approved English language test or qualification found on our webpages: www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/english-language

If you fall slightly below the English language requirement for your course, our English Language Teaching Centre offers a range of pre-sessional options: www.sheffield.ac.uk/eltc/presessional

Please let us know if you would like to accept or decline the offer by logging back into your original online application. We encourage you to make a decision as soon as possible.

Postgraduate Online Application Form: www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/online

When you have met the conditions, please upload scanned copies of documents to the 'Previous Education' section of your online application. If you have not done this by 21 September 2026, we may withdraw our offer.

If you need a visa to study in the UK, you need to meet any offer conditions before you apply for your CAS. We advise you to apply for your CAS by 07 September 2026.

You can find more information about supplying documents and how we verify them on our Supporting Documents webpage:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/supporting

Details of other key dates and deadlines for applications to postgraduate courses are available on our webpages:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/deadlines

You can find more information about what happens next at:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/apply/after Attached with this letter is a copy of the University's formal Terms and Conditions upon Acceptance of an Offer, which will form part of our contract with you if you accept our offer. You can also view these on our webpages. You may wish to pay particular attention to paragraphs 5.2 and 6.3, concerning the accuracy of applicant information and evidence of qualifications.

If this offer amends a previous offer from the University (for example if you have deferred to a later start date), the offer information and terms and conditions provided here supersede any previously issued.

Tuition fees

As a result of the questions you answered as part of your application, your provisional fee status is overseas. If we need more information before we finalise your fee status, we will contact you. More information about fee status is available on our webpages:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/study/fee-status

For overseas fee payers, the academic fee for the session commencing September 2026 will be £30625.

Information about what your tuition fee covers, and details of any additional costs for your course, are available via our course listings:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/courses

More information about fees and funding, including scholarships available for postgraduate students, is available on our finance webpages:

Postgraduate taught course tuition fees: www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/fees

Postgraduate taught course funding: www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/funding

When you meet the conditions of your offer and accept your place, you will need to pay a tuition fee deposit. This deposit will be deducted from your academic tuition fee when you register at the University. We will tell you more about this, and how to pay, when you meet the conditions of your offer.

Deposits are non-refundable unless you meet one of the exceptions in paragraph 8.2 of the Terms and Conditions upon Acceptance of an Offer.

More information on fee deposits is available on our webpages:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/fees/fee-deposits

Course details

You can find module and other information about your course in our course listings. We recommend you save or print this information for your records.

www.sheffield.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/courses

The content of our courses is reviewed annually to make sure it is current and relevant. Individual modules may be updated or withdrawn in response to discoveries made through our world-leading research, funding changes, professional accreditation requirements, student or employer feedback, curriculum review, staff availability, and variations in student numbers. In the event of a material change the University will inform students in good time and take reasonable steps to minimise disruption.

International student requirements

If you need a visa to study in the UK, you will need a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) from the university you want to study at. You can find information about the CAS process at Sheffield on our CAS application webpages:

www.sheffield.ac.uk/cas-application

Student regulations

Regulations relating to your rights and responsibilities while studying at the University of Sheffield are set out in the University Calendar. If you have applied for a degree leading to accreditation with a professional body (for example Medicine or Dentistry) we draw your attention in particular to the General Regulations relating to Student Fitness to Practise.
